St. James's, April 6.

The following Addreſs, of the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Reverend Doctor John Hyndman, Moderator of the laſt General Aſſembly, of the ſaid Church, and the Reverend Mr. Duncan Macfarlan, one of the Miniſters thereof, Deputies, for that Purpoſe, from the ſaid Commiſſion, who were introduced by the Earl of Bute, one His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders, met in the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland, embrace, with Joy, this firſt Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty upon the happy Event of your Marriage

Marriage with a Princeſs of Illuſtrious Birth and moſt amiable Qualities. Attached to your Majeſty by Affection as well as Duty, we rejoice in every Circumſtance which can add to your Satisfaction. Senſible of the Felicity which we ourſelves have enjoyed under your Majeſty's gracious Government, we could form no better Wiſh for our Poſterity, than that the ſame Bleſſings might be tranſmitted to them, and that they too might live under Kings, who fear God and love their People. To your Majeſty's tender Concern for the Welfare of your Subjects, we are now indebted for the Proſpect of having this Wiſh compleated; and diſtant Ages, we truſt, ſhall enjoy Liberty and Happineſs under the mild Adminiſtration of your Deſcendants.

While we expreſs our own Gratitude and Joy, permit us to add, that the ſame dutiful and loyal Sentiments animate all the Members of this National Church. Our daily Intercourſe with our People affords us the beſt Opportunity of knowing their Senſe of the Bleſſings which they enjoy. It is with peculiar Satisfaction we aſſure your Majeſty, that as they participate of the ſame Advantages with the Reſt of your Subjects, they yield to none of them in Attachment to their gracious Sovereign, and in Veneration for that wiſe Conſtitution, from which they derive their preſent Happineſs; and if your Majeſty, in the Courſe of this War, which your Enemies, blinded with Envy and Ambition, have prolonged and extended, ſhall find it proper to call your Subjects, in this Part of the united Kingdom, to defend your Sacred Perſon, their Religion, and Liberties, they will embrace the Opportunity with Ardour, and will act, we doubt not, with the Spirit becoming a free and loyal People.

That Almighty God may take you under His gracious Tuition; that He may give Proſperity to your Adminiſtration, and Succeſs to your Arms; that He may bleſs you with Domeſtick Comfort to ſooth and alleviate the Cares of Government; and that our moſt gracious King and Queen may be long preſerved to bleſs the People, and to ſerve as Patterns and Protectors of Piety and Virtue, are the ſincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in the Commiſſion of the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by
